REVIEWS OF 2005 SHIRAZ

This Clare Valley shiraz has lots of smoky, charred barrel characters from the liberal use of oak, then a big, chewy, concentrated palate with layers of flavour and ample smooth tannins. Plush, profound and satisfying, this is a wine with great depth. Huon Hooke, Gourmet Traveller WINE

... lovely concentrated dark berry, cherry and plum fruit on the nose and palate with some black olive and chocolate characters and fine, firm tannins on the finish ... Rating: 92. Mike Frost, The Brisbane Courier Mail

The shiraz has an inviting purple-crimson colour with pink hues around the edge of the glass. The nose oozes dark chocolate, spice and blackberry fruit aromas. The palate shows plum, rhubarb and blackcurrant. The tannins are soft and nicely integrated into the wine. The finish is long and fruit-driven and this full-bodied wine has palate length on a dry, firm finish. Jim McMahon, Education

Our choice is the shiraz with a good cheese platter — its rich black cherry, black olive and prune fruit flavours are well balanced with acidity, soft tannin and a hint of spicy oak. David Ellis, Sydney North Shore Times

... match it with beef, kangaroo or cheese. Ann Rickard, Noosa News
