REVIEWS OF 2007 RIESLING

... a lovely, elegant, refreshing white just perfect for drinking with Pad Thai. It is shiny light gold in the glass and has delicate citrus and lavender scents, Vibrant grapefruit flavour shows on the front of the palate and lime marmalade and croissant characters chime in on the middle palate. Fresh chalky acid features at the finish. John Lewis, The Newcastle Herald

In five short years, this signature wine from Penna Lane has established itself as a benchmark Clare riesling ... Delicious citrus and even guava flavours are impressively concentrated in true Clare riesling style, and the gentle-press, free-run treatment adds a fresh juicy appeal. A succulent riesling but not lacking in clean acidity. Rob Ingram, Australian Country Style

This is a stunningly good Clare Valley riesling from a winery that has tended to fly under the radar. There's an aromatic, citrusy nose and a full-on bone-dry palate with lemon, lime and zingy tropical fruit flavours. Delicious. Winsor Dobbin, www.winsordobbin.com.au

Riveting citrus/tropical fruit flavours and a sharp, dry finish underpin this first-rate Clare Valley white. It's a fantastic partner for seafood, as well as a flavour-enriching aperitif on a warm day. John Fordham, The Sydney Sunday Telegraph

I first tried the Penna Lane rieslings on a trip to Adelaide a few years ago. Delicious, is my recollection, and this new vintage is up to my expectations. Fresh, zesty and slightly floral, there's just the right balance in this wine for drinking with delicate seafood or Thai dishes. Perfect summer drinking. Fergus McGhie, The Canberra Times

Life couldn't be any better than knocking over a dozen oysters with a glass or two of this superb riesling from one of the Clare Valley's best. It simply sings: perfumed orange blossom notes on the nose, vibrant lemon and lime fruit flavours, zingy acidity and a crisp, clean finish. Kerry Skinner, Illawarra Mercury

... if ever a wine was made to go with oysters this is it. It's citrusy and aromatic with a crisp, clean acid finish. Geoff Hawthorne, Central Coast Express Advocate

With orange blossom aromas, the citrusy flavors also present fruit salad while the finish is crisp and crunchy. Fabulous with flathead. Ross Noble, Adelaide Hills Courier

... perfect with oysters or freshly caught fish. Ann Rickard, Noosa News
